Each year in the week surrounding National Peace Officers Memorial Day, over 25,000 law enforcement officers and their families visit Washington, D.C. to honor fallen law enforcement heroes. In 2022, the 16th annual National Police Week 5K (NPW5K) will be held in Arlington, Virginia during Police Week. The NPW5K not only raises awareness of law enforcement line of duty deaths and pays tribute to those who have made the ultimate sacrifice, it also generates funds for the Officer Down Memorial Page (ODMP) and Concerns of Police Survivors (C.O.P.S.), two organizations that honor fallen officers and provide support to their survivors. Last year's event raised more than $100,000 for these organizations.

Statistics over the last decade show that on average 157 officers are killed in the line of duty each year. The Officer Down Memorial Page pays tribute to each of those heroes and is ranked as one of the top law enforcement websites in the United States. ODMP also partners with organizations that provide free bulletproof vests to officers, honors the hundreds of police canines who have sacrificed their lives in the line of duty, and works with initiatives like Below 100 that aim to improve officer safety and awareness.

The National Police Week 5K is attended by over 2500 runners annually from all over the U.S. and around the world. The virtual NPW5K option, which allows participants to run their own race wherever they are in support of those who gave their lives in the line of duty, adds several hundred additional participants to this event each year.

Sponsorship of the National Police Week 5K is an ideal way to demonstrate your support for the law enforcement community and to promote your organization to a wide audience of like-minded supporters. Sponsors and donors are recognized on the NPW5K event website and all outgoing event communications, and are also featured in the Officer Down Memorial Page newsletter and on ODMP's social media sites, which have a combined audience of more than 634,000 LEOS and supporters. The following page outlines the possible 2022 sponsorship opportunities. Thank you very much for your consideration, and we hope that we can count on your support.
